ADVERTISEMENTS

What is a yearbook ad?

With the purchase of an ad you can advertise your business or organization, recognize a graduating senior, put the spotlight on a sports team, or show your friendship to your BFF. Ads are usually bought by a graduating senior's parents to honor them and say farewell. However, ads are not limited to just seniors, underclassmen may also purchase these ads.

There is an Advertisement Details form that MUST be submitted to reserve your ad space. After your purchase has been made on the International Memories website, please fill out all of the needed information on the Advertisement Details Form found at: http://smithclassroom.teach-nology.com/2010yearbook.html

Please send all photos and the form to Ms. Smith via email at amanda.smith@eu.dodea.edu

Be sure to scan in all of your hard copies of photos and attach them to the e-mail with all other pictures. Keep in mind that with each purchase of an ad page a free yearbook is included. You do not have to buy a yearbook separately. Most parents include a paragraph to their student. When you send in your photos also include a typed version of what you would like to say on your ad page.

All ad forms and pictures must be submitted by January 31, 2010.
