Patch American High School Disclaimer

Patch American High School publishes this web site as a public service to its stake- holders in the Patch community and around the world. It is for educational and informational purposes only.

While we have made reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy of the information, the material is subject to change without notice, and we do not guarantee that it is current. The date we updated a page appears at the end of that page's text.

We consider information presented on our web site to be public information. However, please do not copy anything without express written permission. You may submit your request to the principal. Creative works by DoDEA students remain the property of the student, and you may not use them without express written permission. Creative material presented does not necessarily represent the position, opinion, or policy of the U.S. Govern- ment, DoDEA, or Patch American High School.

Unauthorized attempts to upload information or change information on this service are strictly forbidden and may be punishable under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 and the National Information Infrastructure Protection Act.

For site management, we collect information for statistical purposes.

This communications system uses software programs to create summary statistics, which are used to determine which information is of most and least interest, determining technical design specifications, and identifying system performance and problem areas.

For site security purposes and to insure that this service remains available to all users, this computer system employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Except for authorized law enforcement investigations, no other attempts are made to identify individual users or their usage habits.

Raw data logs are used for no other purpose and are scheduled for regular destruction in accordance with National Archives and Records Administration General Schedule 20.
