<http://collegeboard.com> collegeboard.com is affiliated with the College Board, a 100-year-old, not-for-profit membership association. The mission of the College Board is to prepare, inspire, and connect students to college and opportunity. Its members include more than 3,900 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational associations.

collegeboard.com brings together all the information and tools that students and parents need to plan for the transition from high school to college. It is the only place where students can register online for the SAT[®] and practice online with actual SAT test questions. Students and parents also use collegeboard.com to identify and search for suitable colleges, apply to college online, explore career options, learn about college costs, and navigate the confusing world of financial aid.

collegeboard.com also offers a convenient way for educators to stay on top of test requirements, deadlines, and dates, and provides tools and resources that help them advise students about academic preparation and guide them in practicing for the SAT, finding and applying to the colleges that are right for them, and planning for college costs.

<http://fastweb.com> FastWeb, the Internet's leading scholarship search service, helps students make the decisions that shape their lives: choosing a college, paying for college and finding jobs during and after college.

And it's all free.

Recommended by more than 16,000 guidance counselors and financial aid officers, FastWeb is the most trusted college resource on the Web. Last year, one of three college-bound high school seniors used the site, and more than 15 million students have used FastWeb since its launch in 1995.

FastWeb lets students create a personalized profile that can be matched against our expansive databases of colleges and scholarships. As the oldest and most popular free online scholarship matching service, our database has over 600,000 scholarships totaling more than $1 billion. FastWeb also notifies students when new scholarships are added and application deadlines are approaching.

But FastWeb is about more than scholarships. For students searching for a college, FastWeb can match their background with two- and four-year colleges across the country. Within minutes, our comprehensive college database gives students a list of schools matching their preferences and a complete profile of each school. Students can also sign up to be recruited by colleges, as well as find online applications for more than 700 schools.

Whether it's choosing a college, finding scholarships or getting a job, FastWeb can help!
